HUNT MANIA SHOW PRODUCTION TRADE SHOW RULES

A. GENERAL RULES:

1. Any use of the facilities, including but not limited to, loading, and unloading your vehicle is done at the risk of the Exhibitor, their partners, helpers, or guests. Neither All-Rite Auctions, Hunt Mania Show Productions and/or Show venue owners are liable to any Exhibitor, their partners, helpers, or guests for any damage whatsoever, including but not limited to, damage to a vehicle or any part or attachment to it. The driver and/or owner of vehicle and the Exhibitor are jointly and severally liable for any damage to the building, exhibit tables, contents of the building or any other damage whatsoever. Some Vendors may require a minimum of $2,000,000 public liability insurance please check with show organizers
2. You will be able to move your articles into the Facility as per venue schedule in an orderly manner, large vendors should start early to avoid last-minute jam-up at the loading door. Please remove your vehicles from the loading area asap after unloading. Vehicles may be able to drive in to some venues in the early stages of set-up only!
3. All articles will be neatly displayed either on top of your table or underneath the table, nothing in the aisles. Tables backing onto walls may allow further goods behind the tables, but not to hinder other exhibitors. Some wall areas may be suitable for displaying articles or advertising behind the tables. Please provide your own table covers.
Exhibits may not be removed or packed up until the end of the show! All displays must be removed from the venue on time but not later than 9 pm on the last day of the show.
4. Exhibitor's tags must be clearly always displayed (worn).
5. All Garbage including boxes must be removed by the end of the show
6. All Federal, Provincial, and Municipal laws must be observed
7. No Vehicles, Boats or ATV are allowed to be started inside during show hours and must contain minimum fuel, batteries must be disconnected as per the Alberta Fire Code

B. GUN DISPLAY RULES

8. All Federal, Provincial, and Municipal laws must be observed. Requirement that exhibitors and all persons acquiring firearms and/or ammunition must be in Possession of a valid PAL. Check your expiration dates. Inform yourself about the law at (www.cfc.gc.ca).
9. Confirm that all firearms are unloaded when you arrive. All firearms displayed must be secured against removal and preclude being loaded and/or fired. Trigger locks OR cables must be used. Please note zip ties are not considered an approved locking measure under our insurance regulation. Let no one handle a firearm in an unsafe manner; NO AMMUNITION, (LIVE OR DUMMY/INSERT) IS TO BE LOADED INTO A FIREARM FOR ANY REASON WHATSOEVER. For safety's sake take nothing for granted.
10. Black powder is not permitted on the premises. Smokeless powder must be in factory containers.
11. Ammo can be sold at the show but must be stored in accordance with federal regulations.
12. A written receipt for security purposes must accompany all Firearms sales and may be checked by security at the door.
13. ALL GUNS MOST BE TRIGGER LOCKED & ENCASED OR IN A BOX / PLASTIC BAG WHEN COMING INTO OR LEAVING THE BUILDING! We do not supply plastic bags, please plan ahead.
14. Tables must always be attended by someone with the appropriate class of firearms license while the show is open to the public. If you require a short break one of our staff members may be able to assist you in that manner. Always conduct yourself in a professional and safe manner. Shows of this nature can serve as an educational tool to counteract the anti-gun rhetoric when you abide by all the safety rules.
15. GUN DEALERS WILL HAVE TO HAVE VALID PAL IN ORDER TO DISPLAYING/ SELL ANY FIREARMS
